Motion to Modify Chapter 13 Plan under 11 U.S.C. §1329 to Suspend Payments

COMES NOW the Debtors, by and through counsel, and move this Honorable Court to allow a modification of their plan under 11 U.S.C. §1329 to suspend their payments temporarily. In support of this Motion, the Debtors would show unto this Honorable Court as follows:

1. Debtor 2, Mrs. Prignano, is a schoolteacher that is transferring to Connecticut in the summer, and currently has no income. The school year will not start until the end of August. This will be the only time in which the Debtors will be unable to make the plan payments in the summer, as she will be officially employed and receive a salary in the summers moving forward.
2. The Debtors propose to modify the plan under 11 U.S.C. §1329 to suspend payments for sixty (60) days.
3. The suspension, if granted, will cause the plan payment to increase to $2,141.97 per month.
4. The suspension, if granted, will not cause the plan length to change. It will stay the same at 60 months.
5. The suspension, if granted, will not change the treatment of secured creditors under the plan.
6. The Debtors shall attend the Trustee's Workshop within forty-five days of it being offered again.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, the Debtors move this Honorable Court to allow the proposed suspension of payments in accordance with the request made above.

Respectfully submitted this the 2nd day of June, 2020
